About KSL

KIIT School of Language and Literature (KSL), since its inception in 2007, has been rendering yeoman's service to the entire KIIT fraternity by enriching the University's academic and non-academic programmes. It offers both its students and members of the administrative staff training in Indian, Asian and European languages. Its major programme in English Literature (B. A. Honours and M. A.) strives to train students in literature, critical thinking and writing. The Programme helps students get scholarships abroad and get through the highly competitive job market.

KIIT School of Language and Literature (KSLL) has been instrumental in fostering the development of critical thinking skills, humanistic perspectives and effective writing abilities among its students. This is achieved through its innovative and integrated approach to teaching literature, linguistics, theory, writing, and communication. KSLL creates a dynamic learning environment that cultivates global citizenship, ethical values, nationalism, and cosmopolitanism.

Creating innovators and original thinkers.
